What is in your Academic Tool kit?

3:15 pm - 5:15 pm

Opportunities to learn more listed below by academic areas

Your first semester will be characterized by many new challenges and experiences, whether you are new to the college experience or a transfer student new to UMBC, and we want your first year to be the best it can be. What tools do you possess that you know will contribute to your success? What are some tools you might need to add to your “success” tool kit? Come hear suggestions and tips from faculty, staff, and students who know what it takes to be successful at UMBC. Learn what to expect in the classroom and how to identify co-curricular activities that will enhance your academic, personal, and social life. Get answers to the questions that are causing you the greatest concern from people who know UMBC best.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Undergraduate Honor Statement: I hereby assume the responsibility of an engaged member in a scholarly and civic community in which academic work and behavior are held to the highest standards of honesty. It is my active participation that affirms these principles and gives them true meaning as well as value in my education. I realize that by committing acts of dishonesty I hurt myself and place an indelible mark on the reputation of UMBC. Therefore, I will not cheat, fabricate materials, plagiarize or help another to undertake such acts of academic dishonesty, nor will I protect those who engage in acts of academic dishonesty.
(Passed by Student Referendum — Spring 2004)
